

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

At a recent meeting of the Third Year Class it was voted to omit the publication of The Shingle this year, owing to the lack of support.

Final examinations in several courses were held during the first two weeks in February.

'84-'10—Charles E. Hart, '10, a former chairman of THE LAW JOURNAL, has been taken into partnership in the firm of Bronson, '84, and Lewis, with offices at 136 Grand Street, Waterbury, Conn.

'97—Arthur A. Wilder is vice-chairman of the Citizens' Committee of Thirty-two, appointed by the various civic organizations to draft a new short ballot charter for Honolulu, for submission to the people and the legislature.

'99—The engagement is announced of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Hubbell, daughter of Mrs. Mary R. Hubbell, of Saginaw, Michigan, to George White Skinner, Jr. Skinner is president of the Skinner and Tabor Ranch of Pueblo County, Colorado, and may be addressed at 870 Gas and Electric Building, Denver, Colo.

'01—The marriage of Miss Hanna Draper Osgood, daughter of Mrs. E. L. Osgood of Boston, Mass., and Henry Hotchkiss Townsend of New Haven, Conn., took place in Boston on Jan. 21. Among the ushers was Osborne A. Day, '02.

'01—William T. Rawlins is a member of the committee which is to draft the new short ballot for Honolulu.

'07—The firm of Anderson, Felder, Rountree and Wilson has been dissolved by mutual consent. George P. Whitman, '07, has entered a new firm composed of Felder, Anderson, Dillon and Whitman, with offices at 230-239 Equitable Building, Atlanta, Georgia.

'09—The marriage of Miss Jane Alice Fahy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fahy, and Edward Jerome Quinlan took place in New Haven, Conn., on Nov. 9th. Among the ushers were M. A. Reynolds, '94, and William V. Griffin, '08. Quinlan's address is Gazette Building, Norwalk, Conn.

'09—Arthur W. Chambers has resigned the position of secretary to Congressman John Q. Tilson and has resumed the practice of law at 42 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

'10—Charles V. James is junior partner of the firm of Thayer and James, attorneys-at-law, of Norwich, Conn.

'10—Oscar F. Noel, Jr., has been elected a non-resident member of the New York Yale Club.

'10—Howard F. Bishop, who is attorney for the Board of Local Improvements of Chicago, Ill., with offices at Room 206, has been elected lecturer on the Illinois Law of Municipal Corporations in the Northwestern University Law School. His address is 503 Fullerton Avenue, Chicago.

'10—Meyer Shapiro died on Jan. 28, after a lingering illness. He was a brother of Attorneys Charles and Joseph Shapiro of this city. While at Yale he was a brilliant scholar, winning many prizes, and was also interested in the Kent Club.

'11—The present address of Philip D. Conner is 711 Madison Street, Gary, Ind.

'11—Kenneth Wynne has been elected clerk of the Connecticut State Senate. He was nominated by the Democrats.

'12—Flavel Robertson has passed the Missouri Bar examinations and is with W. R. Thurmond, general counsel for the Long Bell Lumber Co., of Kansas City, Mo. His address is 901 Linwood Boulevard, Kansas City, Mo.

